St. Mary's GAA News: The senior team play their division three league final against Lisnaskea today, Sunday 6th October in Brewster Park at 2pm.

In their recent joint statement, the Church leaders of Ireland have called for the weekend of 12-13 October to be dedicated to prayer for the protection of the unborn in our society and for women facing difficult and challenging pregnancies and their families. This is in response to the proposed introduction by Westminster of legislation on 21st October allowing for unregulated abortion in the North. In addition to other prayer initiatives, you may wish to say and distribute the 'Choose Life Prayer' of the Irish Bishops' Conference. It is available at the web site of the Bishops' Conference or through the following link: <https://www.catholicbishops.ie/wp-content/uploads/2012/10/prayer-for-the-unborn-prayercard-web.pdf>

Lisnaskea History Society - This Monday night Oct 7th Lisnaskea Historical Society will host the local launch of Dermot Maguire's new book "East Fermanagh A Chronicle" 1880 – 1980. The book contains newspaper stories for over a century related to the area and the content of 2 diaries from Andrew J. Maguire and Patrick McMahon. The book runs to over 350 pages teeming with so much local history where not a family or townland does not get a mention between the covers. The launch begins at 8.00pm in the Castle Park Centre, Lisnaskea and the guest speaker will be historian Jack Johnston.

Macmillan Cancer Support - Make someone feel supported - Community Information Volunteer Opportunity Lisnaskea Library.
