We welcome Fr. Tomas O' Connor from St. Patrick's Missionary Society to our Parish this weekend. The Kiltegan Fathers was founded in 1932 and ever since, Priests and lay people from different parts of Ireland have went on Mission throughout the world. Because of that heroic dedication there are now 210 Kiltegan Fathers, 63 of the native Africans, and 75 seminarians preparing for Priesthood. The seed sown in Ireland back in 1932 has grown in surprising ways. Today Fr. Tomas wishes to thank you for the generous support in the past, you might consider subscribing to their "African" magazine or any other initiative.
