Next Sunday the 20th October 2024 the pastoral team for the Parish of Aghalurcher are hosting our second International Mass, in Holy Cross Church at 11am to celebrate the growing international community we have within our parish. We hope to build on last year's event and would like to extend a particular welcome to you and your family to this year's celebration and to some refreshments at the back of the Church afterwards. Whether you are already a well-established member of the parish community, or have never visited the church or centre before, you are most welcome to come and join our celebration, as we continue to strive to make our Parish one that is welcoming to a wide variety of cultures, traditions and languages, as we grow our community in faith. If you, or any of your family members would like to play a part in our Mass we would be delighted to involve you.

SVP are holding their October collection this weekend, Sat. 12th & Sun. 13th before Mass. September collection: £420.20. Thanks to all who contributed.
