Padre Pio Mass of Healing on Tuesday 24th October at 7pm in Holy Cross Church. A first class relic of the Saint will be available for veneration on the night.

November Dead Lists are now available in each of our Churches. As Catholics we believe in praying for our dead, our prayers for them can continue to assist them. During the month of November we remember them all in a special way, all our public masses throughout the month are offered for them. Continue this great tradition by filling out the lists and more importantly by coming to those masses during the month of remembrance.

Lough Derg: The Annual Lough Derg Draw takes place at the end of October: top prize of €10,000. 'Pause for Hope': The Catholic Cathedral of St. Patrick's, Armagh, will host an ecumenical prayer service today, Sunday 15th Oct. at 3.30pm for all those whose lives have been touched by cancer. The aim of Pause for Hope is to help people who have been affected by bringing together in prayer, those who have, or have had cancer, their loved ones, those who care for them, doctors, nurses, those who have responsibility for providing resources, and conducting research. Bishop Michael Router, Auxiliary Bishop of Armagh, will lead the service. The preacher will be Archbishop John McDowell, Church of Ireland Archbishop of Armagh, and during the service a person affected by cancer will speak about their experience. The musical accompaniment will be provided by organist Colm Murphy and the Cathedral Choir. All welcome to attend.

O God of peace,
You have established Jerusalem as the Lord's House and a place of peace, and You have called on all who live there to love You and prosper.

Instill in her inhabitants - Jews, Christians and Muslims - a hunger for justice and dignity and a resolve to end the distrust that culminates in violence.

Pope Francis

This week's bulletin has been sponsored by Clodagh's Bakes.
