The Ecumenical Service for Pentecost Sunday in Clogher Diocese will take place this year at Lough Derg, Pettigo in Co. Donegal. The Church of Ireland Bishop of Clogher, the Right Revd Dr. Ian Ellis and the Roman Catholic Bishop of Clogher, the Most Revd Larry Duffy, will participate in the service which begins at 3pm to-day Sunday, 19th May and the address will be given by Monsignor Laurence Flynn, Prior of Lough Derg. Transport to the island is by boat with boats available to ferry people across at the following times; 1.30pm, 2.00pm, 2 20pm, 2.40pm. Boat tickets (free of charge) are available at the Visitor Centre. Afterwards, refreshments will be provided at Lough Derg. Since 2000, the Roman Catholic and Church of Ireland bishops of Clogher have come together, along with members of their respective Church communities to mark together the Day of Pentecost or Pentecost Sunday, as it also known. The Day of Pentecost marks the end of the fifty-day season of Easter. Moreover, it marks the descent of the Holy Spirit in the upper room and the beginning of apostolic preaching, thus marking a defining moment in the origin of the Christian Church. Christian associations with the feast begin with Acts of the Apostles 2: 1-45.

Each year, a site of historic significance in relation to the origins of the Christian church in different parts of the diocese is chosen to host this Ecumenical Service. Lough Derg has been a pilgrimage destination for well over 1000 years. From the 6th century, the original monastery was located on Saints Island. The traditional three-day pilgrimage now continues on Station Island over 10 weeks each summer from June to mid-August. In May and in late August through September, day retreat experiences are available.
