Thought for the Week

"I don't know where I am going from here, but I promise it won't be boring"
– David Bowie

David Bowie, the famous rock star who gave a lot to the world with his music and talent passed away at the age of 69 following an 18month battle with cancer.

Perhaps we can think of his words again "I don't know where I am going from here, but I promise it won't be boring". None of us really know where we are going and each day we need to be thankful for our health and the fact that we are alive, and so let us commit to making life interesting and exciting for ourselves and for all those around us. Let us pray for those who are undergoing treatment for cancer at this present time, our thoughts are with them all. And let us pray for a generous heart that will empower us to be a people for others for in our Gospels we are encouraged to go that extra mile, to go out of our way in making a difference to someone else, and to seize the initiative when no one else will. It's the extra little bit which can make an extraordinary difference to somebody

This week's bulletin has been sponsored in memory of the Cullen family, Lisduff.
